Homecoming 1980

With the student-chosen theme "Another One Bites Dust," Homecoming 1980 culminated with half-time festivities during the SSHS—Mooresville game. Karen Rhyne was selected homecoming queen by her senior classmates and was crowned by tri-captains Joe Bowman, Kevin Sherrill, and Steve Stallings. Mascots Erin Nazorvitch and Kevin Griffin participated as well as representatives of senior football players, class representatives and their escorts. Representing the senior class were Cindy Cannon, Disa Sverrisdottir, and Vicki McIntosh. Dinky Rullman and Lisa White represented the junior class; Laurie Dunton and Revonda Bowman, the sophomores; and Dana Ochs and Jamie Smith, the freshmen.

During the dance which followed the game, the queen danced with the student body president, Bob Vollinger, to music provided by Screamin' A's.

Other homecoming activities during the week included a pep rally, a "Mr. and Miss Irresistable" contest, class spirit competitions, and an essay contest.

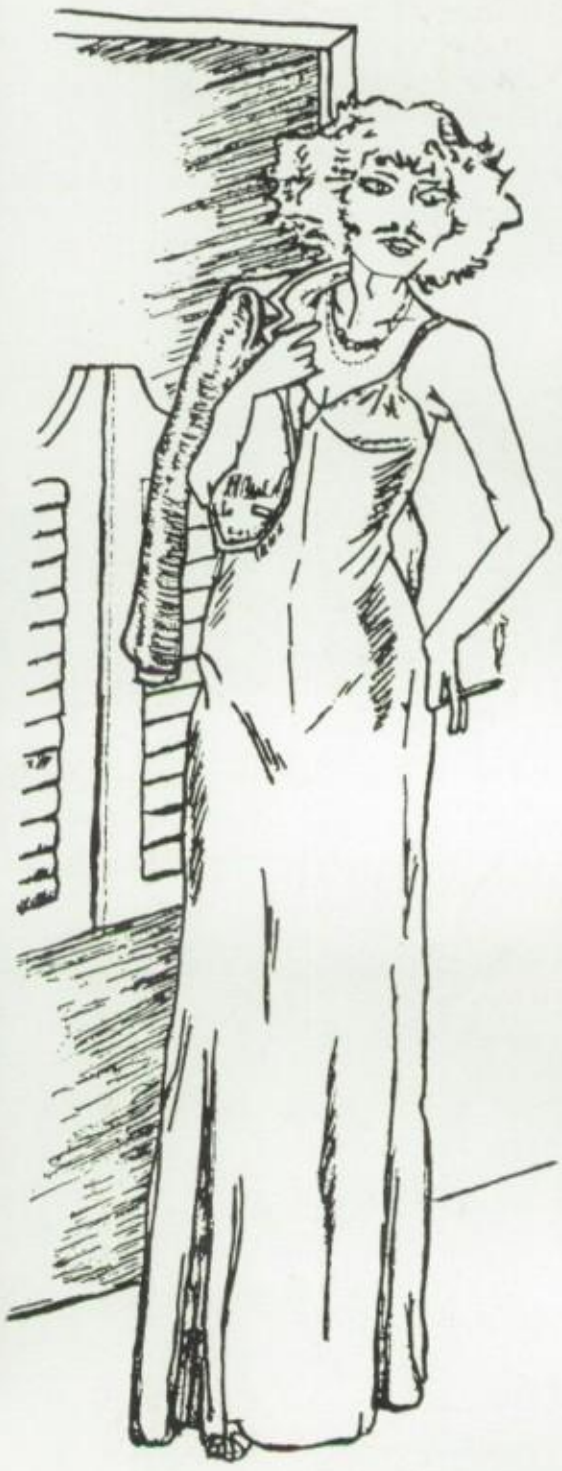
The play You Can't Take It With You, written by Moss Hart and George Kaufman, was performed in May, 1980, in the multiple-purpose building.

Ms. Kathy Byerly, a student teacher from Lenoir-Rhyne College, casted and directed the play with the help of Mrs. Patty Schenk.

From the many interested students who auditioned, Terry Walker was cast as Penny, Jeff Ritchie as Paul, and Rhett Herman as Grandpa. Other members of the cast included the following: Amy Broome, Melanie Mitchell, Monte Mitchell, Jimmy Miller, Keith Hicks, Pam Morgan, Mike Harris, Rick Houser, Todd Spencer, Tania Drummond, Sarah Houston, Suzanne Byrd, Mark Kramer, Richard Hayes, and Jones Daughton.

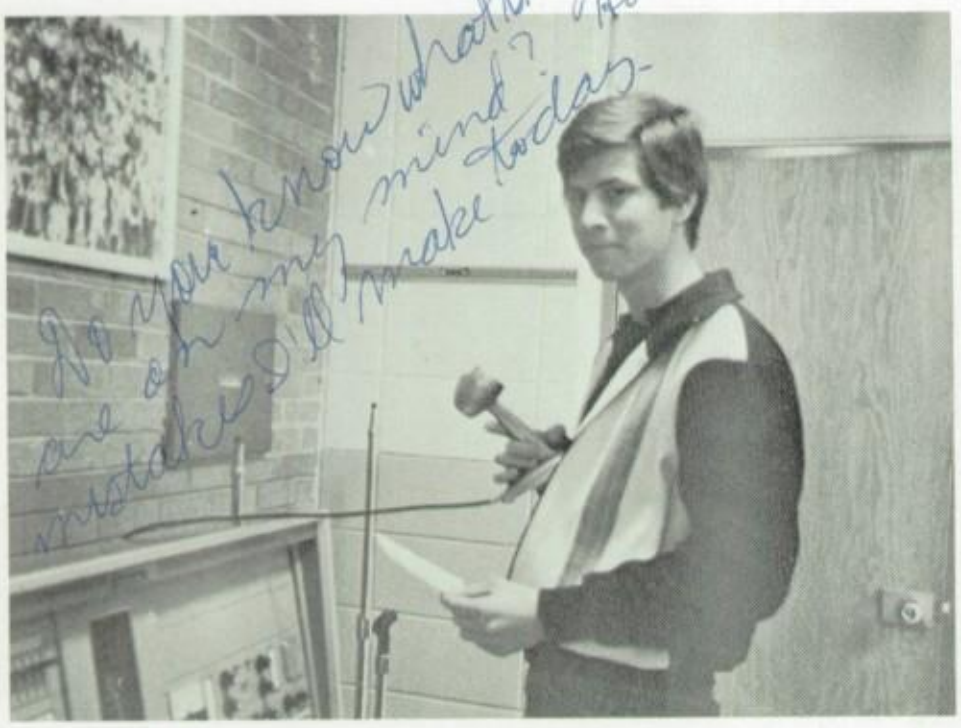


Mr. St. Stephens Pageant 1980

Mr. St. Stephens
Tracy Reitzal

The 1980 Mr. St. Stephens Pageant was again sponsored by the Juniorettes who chose "Bad Girls" as their theme. Thirty-seven young men, representing homerooms and clubs, first appeared before the judges and audience dressed in leisure suits. Then, after some minor transformations, these handsome fellows modeled their hidden beauty as "bad girls."

The judges selected the following winners from the seductive line-up: Mr. St. Stephens 1980, Tracy Reitzel (crowned by Mr. SSHS 1979, Mike Minton); second runner-up, Jeff Renfro; and third runner-up, Bobby Burton. Steven Beasley was chosen Mr. Congeniality.



Bob Vollinger: "I feel that the greatest reward for doing is the opportunity to do more."

Vicki McIntosh: "The only way to have a friend is to be one.

Cheerleaders Boost

The 1980-81 Varsity Cheerleaders lifted school spirit by putting up posters to support the Indians, wearing red and white on Varsity game days, selling ribbons and pins, and gaining the crowd's enthusiasm. They held pep rallies to support the fighting Indians.

This past summer they attended cheerleading camp at Furman University in South Carolina. Led by Lori Whiteside, they received six blue ribbons, one red ribbon, and the Superstar ribbon. Aundrea Reese was chosen "All American Cheerleader" by the National Cheerleaders Association. Varsity and J.V. together were voted the Most Spirited Squads, winning the megaphone and bringing home the spirit stick.

J.V. Cheerleaders

The 1980-81 Junior Varsity Cheerleaders showed enthusiasm throughout the year by making posters, selling programs, and cheering at all J.V. games as well as the Homecoming game and pep rally. The squad, led by Brandi Maye, consisted of four sophomores and four freshmen.

This summer they attended cheerleading camp at Furman University in South Carolina, and brought back seven blue ribbons and a Superstar ribbon. Cheering together, J.V. and Varsity brought home the most spirited squad award, receiving the megaphone and also the spirit stick.

A TEACHER'S PLEDGE

I will see each child . . .
and let him see
the person that I am.
I will listen to each child . . .
for I may be the only one
who hears him cry.
I will know each child . . .
but not intrude upon
his private self.
I will accept each child . . .
and help him become
the person he would be.
I will respect each child . . .
as I respect the God in every man.
I will value each child . . .
so he can have the strength
to evaluate himself.
I will give him skills . . .
so he can make his way
without my help.
I will help him find the truth . . .
so he might know the mind of man.
I will show him beauty . . .
that he might see the hand of God.
I will teach each child . . .
and learn from everyone I teach.

Indian Spirit Is . . .

Indian spirit is attending football games, cheering loudly at pep rallies and coming to school each day. It also means you support your fellow students and teachers by paying attention in class and being friendly to everyone you meet. You can also show your Indian spirit by occasionally wearing red and white. But the best way of showing your Indian spirit is to set a good example for everyone else. — Donna Isbell would like to thank all of the area businesses for their contributions in making the 1980-1981 annual possible.

THEY SAY THAT IN THE UNCHANGING PLACE*

They say that in the unchanging place,
  Where all we loved is always dear,
We meet our morning face to face
  And find at last our (eighteenth) year . . .

They say (and I am glad they say)
  It is so; and it may be so:
It may be just the other way,
  I cannot tell. But this I know:

From quiet homes and first beginnings,
  Out to the undiscovered ends,
There's nothing worth the wear of winning,
  But laughter and the love of friends.

Hilaire Belloc

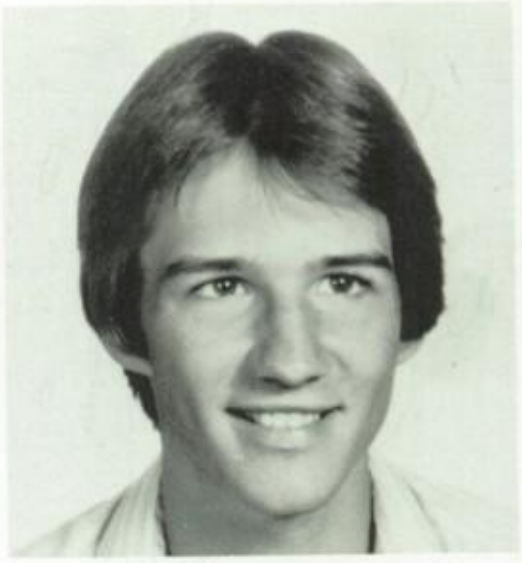
Editors Complete 1981 Yearbook

Linda E. Jett



Kevin N. Yount

As we complete the 1981 edition of the Corona, another school year is almost at an end. This year has been a successful one in many ways, yet full of many challenges and many decisions. Many people are responsible for the publication of this yearbook, and we would like to thank Mr. Leon Lewis, our Delmar representative, Mr. Harold Lackey, our regional manager, and our special thanks are given, to Mr. James Yount, whose cooperation helps to make our yearbook a successful one. We would also like to thank the Corona staffs and their advisors, Miss Laura Echerd and Mrs. Roxy Poovey for their continued help and assistance.

We hope you will enjoy this yearbook and look back on it in the future with the fondest of memories. Again, we hope this yearbook contains this year's best memories and we want to wish the editors and staff of next year's Corona the best of luck.

At the closing of this year, we find ourselves looking at our experiences as the 1980-81 Corona Co-Editors. It has been a year filled with many frustrating but rewarding accomplishments. We would like to thank the business staff, Kevin Yount, and Linda Jett for their help and encouragement with the advertisement section of the Corona. We would also like to thank our advisors, Mrs. Roxanne Poovey and Miss Laura Echerd, for their help and support when things started to look rough. At the end of our senior year, we can look back through all the hardships and find true happiness. We believe our time was well spent, and we hope that all the students of St. Stephens enjoy this year's Corona like we will.

Jan,

Time flies when you're havin' fun - thanks to you this year has flown too fast for me. I'm so glad we've become good friends this year, & only wish it hadn't taken me so long to get to know you. I really feel that you're a wonderful person & a beautiful girl. So often you've helped to make my day by being so funny & flashing that beautiful, brilliant smile. Don't ever stop! I hope you're always as nice to everyone as you've been to me. It really means so much to have a friend who's always so kind. Please always be as wonderful as you are now & think of me once in a while. I'll never forget you, Janice. I hope we'll see a lot of each other in the future & especially this summer. Make the best of your Senior year - it'll be terrific! Take care.

Take it easy & enjoy life

Janice,

Honey, I really hate writing in an annual that has it's pages blessed with sweet nothings (NOTICE = SAID NOTHINGS) from your other boyfriends. Seriously I just like bugging you, for I know what type of person you truly are. It's really taken a long time to get to know you and I still have alot to learn. I sincerely hope that this time around we work out for an extremely long time and I treat you like the lady which you have shown me to be. I'm not going to write about how sweet and beautiful you are because you should already know how I feel about you. If you don't then you can look forward to a fun summer of letting me prove my feelings. Have fun your senior year and make the best of it. Hopefully, I'll be around some. (THE PROM STUD). Seriously, just because I'll be in Florida doesn't mean that something won't come out of this summer. All I can say is, look for me being around for many years after this summer. Love & Kisses; A-Lways. Love,

Todd Panton
